To whom it may concern,

I'm reaching out to share my wholeheartedly recommendation for Anna Solnickova, who works as our Fractional CFO at West Coast Metal Recycling.

From the moment we began working together, Anna impressed me with her depth of financial expertise and her approachable nature. She stepped in during a critical transition period bringing exceptional skills in financial reporting, budgeting, and strategic planning. She is always willing to roll up her sleeves to tackle any challenge, and her insights are invaluable in steering our financial strategy.

Beyond her technical skills, Anna is genuinely a pleasure to work with. She fosters a positive atmosphere, encouraging open communication and teamwork among our staff. It's rare to find someone who combines such a high level of professionalism with a friendly and engaging demeanor.

I have no doubt that Anna will bring the same dedication and expertise to any future projects. If you have any questions or would like to discuss her work further, please feel free to reach out.

Best regards,

Helen Grskovich
